CITY ITEMS.

CRAWFORD'S Grand Spring opening takes place in the morning. As a vertical sign it reads "Crawford's Anti-Freckle". We have no hoodwink in trying the marvelous display, covering four doors. The Anti-Freckle has had an equal here or elsewhere? The anti-freckle territory has been painted and varnished within and without, and the glass is clear and bright. The Anti-Freckle and its numerous and various forms does its intended work upon and look through this state of wonder.

The best complexion improver-Habib's Anti-Freckle. See it here.

ONE KILLED, FIVE INJURED.

Laborers in Whitehall Tunnel
Caught by a Cave-In.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 24.—One man was killed and five injured by a cave-in in White Hall Tunnel on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, ten miles south of this city today. The killed:

Antonio de Boni, Italian fisherman.

Frank Alliter, Italian; John Lee, colored; Philadelphia; Thomas Clark, colored; Charles J. Vass, unknown American, unknown color.

The men were engaged in excavating when the timber gave way and buried them under the earth. All were taken to safety, but De Boni died from his injuries.

Alliter, Lee, and the unknown American unconscious, and it is thought will die.

MOVEMENT AGAINST THE WINEROOMS.

Plans for a Mass Meeting to Be Held, Probably, the First Week in April.

FATHER COFFEY DETERMINED.

He Has Confidence in the Friends of Reform and Believes the Desired End Will Be Accomplished.

Now the day is coming when the Executive Committee of the Anti-Wineroom Crusade will hold a meeting in room No. 102 Fellow's building to complete plans for a mass meeting April 1st, which probably will be held the first week in April to combine the forces of all citizens and societies engaged in the campaign against the winerooms and dives. The mass meeting will be held at some central place, and preparations will be made for the attendance of a large number of persons who are sympathetic with the work of the Anti-Wineroom Crusade. Ministers of many churches, the women and young people, members of the church, the Knights of Father Matthew Society, the Catholic Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Y. P. S. C. E., the Barbiel Young People's Society, and many business men are expected to be present at the meeting.

The Reverend James T. Coffey, pastor of St. John's Church, and president of the Anti-Wineroom Crusade, will address the W. C. T. U. at 5 o'clock next Monday afternoon at the Second Baptist Church. He said yesterday:

"The developments of the last few days in reference to the Anti-Wineroom Crusade are only a slight indication of the immense power and moral sentiment behind our organization. The fact that the saloonkeepers are arrayed upon the altar of public opinion is a sufficient proof that our work is not done in vain. So far we have concerned the right with a lessening of our share of our members' time, labor and expense, but the crusade is progressing, and the spirit of reform is growing among us."
